

StereoVision Board of Directors Extends CEO Jack Honour's Contract Through 2023

StereoVision <http://stereovision.com> OTC:SVSN a publicly traded Nevada corporation announced today that their Board of Directors voted to extend Jack Honour's CEO contract through 2023.

StereoVision's CEO Jack Honour said "I'm enthusiastic and encouraged to continue the business mission we set out on. Doing good things that have a positive impact on our communities. With our Faith-Based film about three teens that perform together in a Jerusalem youth orchestra, "Three Dimensions Of Jerusalem" a film project that has as its driving force faith that Christians, Muslims, and Jews can live together in harmony. As the tagline says 🎵 Music Has No Color Gender or Denomination 🎵 Music Belongs to Everyone 🎵" Our very talented production team <http://www.globenewswire.com/news-release/2019/06/26/1874468/0/en/Multiple-Award-Winning-Filmmaker-Michael-Landon-Jr-to-Produce-and-Direct-StereoVision-s-Inspirational-Feature-Film-Three-Dimensions-Of-Jerusalem.html> is determined to get this film produced and distributed.

"The same holds true for our parallel purpose of joining the global battle to mitigate Climate Change", continued Honour. "With the acquisition of Climate Cure Capital and the launch of our majority owned Nevada ESG Benefit company Eco Allies, we're doing good for our climate while doing good for our shareholders. With the US dedicating $1.7 trillion to the battle, and institutional money companies like Blackrock and JP Morgan joining a $41 trillion fund to invest in ESG companies BlackRock Joins \$41 Trillion Investor Climate Campaign - Bloomberg StereoVision's climate change warriors that have been leading the fight for years are now seeing the big money sending reinforcements."
